

for an entire group may make a cross, as above described, in the appropriate space after the emblem or name of the political organization above such group. Not more than one voter shall be permitted to occupy any one booth or compartment at one time, and no voter shall remain in or occupy a booth longer than may be necessary to prepare his ballot, and in no event longer than five minutes in case all such booths or compartments are in use and other voters are waiting to occupy the same. Before leaving the voting booth or compartment, the voter shall fold his ballot without displaying the marks thereon, and in the same way it was folded when received by him, and he shall keep the same so folded until he has voted, and so that the signature or initials of the judge from whom he received it and the name and number written on the coupon thereof, but nothing else thereon may be seen. He shall forthwith hand his said ballot to the judge at the ballot box, and shall give his name and residence, and upon his being identified as the person who received said ballot, the judge shall deposit his ballot in the box, having first detached therefrom its coupon, which he shall then string upon a cord or wire to be provided for the purpose, and the said voter shall forthwith leave the inclosed space. The judge having charge of the register shall then, in the column therein headed "Voted," in the same line with the name of the voter, mark the word "Voted," or the letter "V." No ballot without the endorsement of the name or initials of the judge thereon, as herein provided, shall be deposited in said ballot box; but if deposited, shall be counted at the close of the election, and the judges shall, in ink, mark on the back thereof the word "Counted," and sign their names below.
